The Inspiration

After delivering millions of square foot of residential area in over 35 years extending beyond 4000 dwelling units, factories, hotels, hospitals, schools, corporate offices and hostels stretched across states of Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh and Chandigarh, SATISH KUMAR JAIN is now adding to their success list the first of its kind up-market residential community “ESCON ARENA”.

Since a long time SATISH KUMAR JAIN had a vision to put its extensive experience as a leading civil contractor to good use and provide an exemplary residential building venture. Group housing is essentially a high density living system where the indoor space is limited, use and maintenance of outdoor space is shared. This is where smart planning plays a very crucial role. Inspired by this understanding, their own legacy in quality construction and professional expertise in micro and macro project planning, SATISH KUMAR JAIN through its sister concern Malwa Projects Pvt Ltd, has conceived and actualized ESCON ARENA for the uber living.
